“ What a beautiful soul! Mrs. Thompson was my typing and shorthand teacher way back in 1963-1964. It was my favorite class and a good thing too because I moved to Virginia and made my living working for the Department of Defense for 27 years starting out as a Clerk Typist and worked my way up to a Management job. She was always so nice and encouraging and I loved being in her class. It was a pleasure knowing her and having her for a teacher. Love and prayers to her family and may she RIP. Job well done!
