“Having known Barbara was a rare pleasantry of life. She usually had a kind word and a smile for all. I am so pleased that she had no pain and glad that all her trials are over. She leaps, sings, praises her Lord and awaits her husband, children and loved ones to be reunited one day! God bless each of you!
Sincerely,

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I will always remember the great times we shared. My mom and I would go to the mall and usually see Barb and Dennis and we'd go to eat with them. We visited at their house a few times. We had great fun at the Rebekahs too. Barb used to gush about the stargazer lily I had given her. She would let me know every year how many blooms that it had on it. I will miss Barbara a great deal. She is now with God and watching over all of us.
