“ I am so sorry to read about your loss of Buffy. Fortunately, death is only a temporary part of life. Jesus promised us a wonderful resurrection of the dead (John 5:28,29/1 Thessalonians 4:13, 14), so we have the hope of being reunited with our deceased loved ones. In the meantime, even though the pain of loss through death may seem sometimes insurmountable, rest assured that God will give you the strength necessary to endure the coming months (Psalm 46:1). Please accept my deepest sympathy and sincere condolences. JW.org

“ To Buffy's Children,
I just want you both to know how truly sorry I am. Your Mom was a beautiful person and loved life. She loved you both more than anything in this world. Buffy is my second cousin and my heart is so broken. May God comfort you both and give you strength to go on as only he can. I love you both even though we haven't met because Buffy is a part of you and will always be. I will miss her so...but we will meet again where we will never part.. Praying for all you always ❤️

“ My dear loving cousin Buffy, I searched for you everywhere the Friday before your accident as I wanted you to cut and style my hair but I could not find you anywhere. I came to the hospital with Kay after church Sunday when we heard you were at Cabell in ICU. We prayed all the way up there for you baby girl and then in your room we prayed again. When we left your room I just knew that you had an encounter with Jesus at the scene of your accident and He loved you so much He would not let you suffer in pain. I saw you in the Spirit being lifted up by God's holy angels and you had the biggest smile of love all over your face. They were taking you to your heavenly home honey and I know they are rejoicing in heaven because you made it in and now you can watch over your Momma and your favorite Aunt Sue and all your cousins, but especially over your babies Bobby and Alyssa and all your other loved ones. I love you Buffy, you were always so beautiful and full of life and love for others. I am going to miss you sweet angel, so until we meet again I want you to know that I firmly promise you by the grace and mercy of our loving God and the Lord Jesus Christ who is our Saviour that I will see you someday in Heaven and we will walk on those beautiful streets of gold together!!! I LOVE YOU BUFFY
