“ Dear Linda , Andi and family,
How many laughs have I shared with Charlie over the past 30 years? No matter what had occurred in my life or his , he kept his sense of fun.
His compassion and his friendship will be deeply missed. He was so much in love wth you, Linda and so very proud of Andi and his grandson who he brought the station to be on air and tale a tour.
My sympathy is with you at this time and you are in my prayers. I know how much he loved attending church with you Linda and how he had came to love the Lord . Please take comfort in knowing that he was saved.

“ The Marines and Drill Instructors of Platoon 276 Parris Island 1957 wish to express our gratitude for the notification we received from the family of the passing of our fellow Marine. Charlie was a hard working Recruit at MCRD Parris Island, and during the rigorous training, you would always find Charlie with a quick smile or grin, and his cheerful attitude. He set an example for his fellow recruits with his mature attitude. Charlie was a fine Marine. We were proud to have served in the United States Marine Corps with him. Rest in Peace, Marine. Semper Fidelis.

“ Charlie Beavers Family... We feel so blessed to have been Charlie's friends. He was a wonderful, thoughtful, and kind person. He was such a support to us during Vince's recent illness. We adored him and feel privileged to have had him in our lives these past few years. He loved his wife, and he loved his kids/grandkids. What a caring husband, father, and man he was. Although we feel a huge void in our lives, Charlie and all the great memories will live on forever. May God be with each of you and may the grief you share today, become a special memory, held in your hearts, tomorrow. Charlie loved God..and now he rests in his arms, forever.

“ Dear Andi & Sonya, and family, my prayers and thoughts are with you during this time. Your dad was a great man, always smiling and always great to chat with.

I always remember funny things about someone at these times, and remember one time when I was backing down his driveway in my old station wagon loaded with people from Andi's grad party in '86 and running into your dad half way down the hill. I backed up so he could get by then took out a little to fast I guess cause the next day he thought I took the kegs from the party. I of course didn't take them but never discussed it with him so he probably thought it was me all this time. Just makes me smile now seeing him driving up that hill in the Caddy and me backing up in my old wagon like a dumb nervous teen would and getting the heck out of dodge, he must have thought what morons!

Love and prayers,

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I have enjoyed getting to know Charlie over the years, he was always available for a hug and a smile...and a microphone. Charlie and Linda have always been ones to jump in feet first and do whatever it takes to get something going whenever we have a skit or play or cantata. I love you both, Charlie will be missed!
