

Danny Eugene Roy

DANNY EUGENE ROY, 72, of Huntington, W.Va., died Monday, Jan. 21, 2013, at Cabell Huntington Hospital in Huntington, W.Va. He was born Sept. 19, 1940, in Lincoln County, W.Va., a son of the late Gilmor and Lola Virginia Chaney Roy. Danny worked for Steel of West Virginia as a welder. He formerly attended the Prichard Church of God. In addition to his parents, he was also preceded in death by one grandson, Joshua Roy; and one brother, Roger Roy. He was a big Green Bay fan, loved the outdoors and was an avid hunter. Most of all, Danny loved to spend time with his family. He is survived by his beloved wife, Judy Ann Caldwell Roy; three sons, Randy Roy of Proctorville, Ohio, Timothy Roy and Jeffrey Roy, both of Huntington, W.Va.; one daughter and son-in-law, Kimberly and Rick Shank of Huntington, W.Va.; his grandchildren, Matthew Roy, Corey Blankenship, Ethan Roy, Skylar Roy and Randy Roy Jr.; his great-grandchildren, Gage and Gavin Roy; two sisters and their husbands, Peggy and Jerry Duty and Nancy and Jim Carter; and one brother, Jimmy Roy. The family will receive friends from noon to 2 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 24, 2013, at Rollins Funeral Home, Kenova, W.Va. Funeral services will begin immediately following the visitation at 2 p.m. with Bishop Andy Turner officiating. Burial will follow in Maple Hill Cemetery. “ Aunt Judy, Kim, Randy, Timmy & Jeff...I am so sorry about Uncle Danny. He was such a funny loving guy. I remember coming and staying with you all in the summer time when I was a kid myself. I always told him he reminded me of "Bruce Willis". (smile) My prayers are with each one of you. I love you all.....

“ I am so sorry to hear about Danny. I wish that I could be with you tomorrow, but will be out of town on business. We have fond memories of sitting on the porch together in Prichard and I think of Danny and Judy so often as I drive down the lane. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
