“ We are very sorry for your loss. Please take comfort in the fact that your friends and family want to be there for you. Like it says at Proverbs 17:17, "A true friend is loving at all times, and a brother is born during times of distress." For added comfort please continue to throw your anxieties on God because He does care for you (1 Peter 5:7). May your loving memories bring you relief during this difficult time. Your family has our sincerest condolences.

“ This young man never spoke or acted disrespectful to us. He showed kindness and pleasant regard. His family were neighbors that would always wave and smile as you passed in your car. We will remember this family with great values and they will be missed. God bless you, David, you and yours.
