“ I regret not being able to attend visitation this evening. Just a few words that I hope will ease this hard time. I have been your Dad's Health Buddy nurse at the VA. In my attempt to support him in his chronic illnesses, his good nature and gentleman attitude ministered to me at each phone or office visit. His gentle smile and easy laugh brightened my day. He knew my parents and knew that I was struggling to keep them safe and healthy. He never wanted to be a burden to his kids. He helped me realize that I was doing the best for my parents that the situation would allow. He was proud of his family. And spoke of you often.

I am sorry that I was unable to tell him goodbye. My Mother passed last Saturday and I'm not sure how I should be feeling. I try not to feel guilty about what I did or what I did not do...but that is also a hard spot. Things will be the way things are..they loved us unconditionally.

I will miss him greatly.

“ May it help you now in some small way to meet each new day and to know that others care.

*God saw that he was getting tired.
And a cure was not be.
So he put his arms around him.
And whispered
"come with Me."*
