“Joyce and Frank were technically my cousin and cousin by marriage, respectively, but because they were older, the relationship was always more like aunt and uncle. When I was young, they always felt like the "cool" aunt and uncle, and that didn't change even when I became an adult. They were always wonderfully kind to me, and nowadays I try to be the same kind of role model to my own nieces and nephew that they were to me. Rest in peace, Frank, and thank you!

“We are so sad to hear about Uncle Frank's passing. He was a great uncle and a better man. His unlimited kindness to our family in good times and bad was remarkable. He left positive impressions that have endured my entire life. He will be missed.

“We will miss you Uncle Frank. I always enjoyed my visits with you in Fort Gay, Ceredo, and Oak Island. I am glad that you are free of pain and with Aunt Joyce for eternity.
