Reunited with and preceding her in death were her parents Glen Evan and Geneva Ella Ball McClure and a baby brother Evan. She is survived by her devoted husband of 60 years, Andrew Jackson Dolin. She leaves her love and blessings to her six children Glen and Kay Jeffrey Dolin of South Point, Ohio, Steve and Sharon Triplett Dolin of South Point, Ohio, Maurice and Judy Svarda Dolin of Middletown, Ohio, Fred and Frances Dolin Lewis of Kitts Hill, Ohio, Terry and Pat Byrd Dolin of South Point, Ohio and Rick and Shirley Dolin Snider of Barboursville, W.Va.; 18 grandchildren, Andrew, Candace, Jami, Amanda, Michael, Nathan, Kevin, Buddy, Laura, Jenafer, Alicia, Matthew, Johnathan, Ace, Terrina, Jennifer, Luke and Mark and 23 great-grandchildren. Mommy's works were a testimony to her faithful obedient servanthood to GOD, worshipping Him as a member of the Kenova Church of Christ. Along her journey in life she embraced being a wife and mother continuing to raise her children "...in the way they should go..." Prov. 22:16. She enjoyed reading, crocheting, yard selling and the church's annual VBS. We can only imagine the smile on her face when she received her heavenly reward. She is now resting in the arms of her parents and our Lord. Our world has become dimmer, but heaven became a little brighter upon her arrival. We love you, Mommy. The family wishes to invite you to celebrate her life with them by attending her visitation Friday, February 3rd from 6 to 8 p.m.

and her memorial service Saturday, February 4th at noon, both to be held at Kenova Church of Christ, 1801 Chestnut Street, Kenova, W.Va. Brother Joe Pratt will be the speaker of her celebration. Upon conclusion of her service at Rose Hill Burial Park, Ashland, Ky., please return with the family and join us in a reception dinner hosted by the Kenova Church of Christ. “ I am so sorry Andrew to have learned the news about Freeda and my fateful call that day to check on her only to find I was too late. I too am going through this sadness as my husband Ken passed away a week ago. They say it gets easier, stay busy and on and on. So, let's us both keep one foot in front of the other and lean on our Lord as he meant for us to do. Maybe someday we will see you again here in Florida. In Christian Love, Terri
