“ So sorry to hear of the loss of your dad, Jr. It is so very hard to loose a family member but, so much harder around the holidays. My prayers are that God will wrap his loving & comforting arms around you to get you through this difficult time. Remember the good times, as you were growing up, & always being there for him in his sickness. My deepest sympathy to you. May God be with you. Sending my love to you.

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of your loved one's passing but he is happy with God and seeing all his loved ones gone before, once again.

I knew this family from childhood on Sycamore St. and they were friends of my siblings. Such a remarkable family!

May God pour his blessings upon each of you!

With Sympathy,

Judie Pruitt Smith, Sons, Brent, Brad & Larry and their families....
