“ So many memories of Stanley when we were young, and so many images fill my mind of happy times that we spent together so many long years ago. In recent years I've thought of him on numerous occasions and commented how I would love to see him again and should look him up. Regretfully, I waited too late. Stanley was my friend, but more than that, he was family, as is Mark, whom I know the best, but also, Larry, Mathew, Sherry and Anita... Stanley was a true gentleman and real genuine nice person, with a wonderful sense of humor. The last time I saw him was years ago. I saw him walking in Kenova and I stopped and I stopped and picked him up. He looked at me with a big smile and said " they call me the father if lies" I said, yean... and that was a good one right there.. and, we both laughed together. Stan the man, my good buddy, I'll never forget him ...Michael Null
