“ Jenifer was an inspiration to many. She was my instructor during my last semester of Nsg in 1989. I learned so much from her and she played a huge part in me becoming the nurse I am today. She was so patient and kind, yet she expected nothing less than perfect...I have thought of her many times since 1989 and always with good memories. Thank You Jenifer for sharing your knowledge. Alison, I never met you, but heard about you often. My thoughts are with you, be proud to be your mother's daughter!

“ *She will be sadly missed. She taught my son and helped him along the way. I understand that he seen her the morning of her passing and was able to tell her goodbye. His name is Tracy and we all dearly loved your mother. I wish that I could say something encouraging but the only thing that I can say is that time will heal. “ *To the family of Ms. Carroll;
All my love and prayers I send to you. She inspired me to be the best in nursing that I can be and to reach for the stars. To always treat my patients as I would my family. I would not have achieved the advance nursing degrees if not for her. Under her direction is where I found my love in nursing in the cardiac field that lead me to be an ICU nurse. I will always think of her fondly and be thankful for the time that I was blessed to know her.

“ Dear Allison and family: I was privileged to work with your wonderful mother for the past 11 years. She was a woman of immense kindness and goodness. She was rigid with her students in learning what they needed to become good nurses. She also motivated many to success that would have failed. I think everyone who knew her loved working with her. She was such a joy! I know how loved her daughter. Photos were throughout her office. May God comfort you. Frank Salisbury

“ Mrs Carroll,

You have touched my life in ways that I will never be able to repay to you. Your compassion and strong will pulled me through so many rough times in my life as a student as well as my personal life and sickness. You were always there with a kind word to encourage me on and never gave up on me. Today I am an RN because of your belief in me and because of your encouragement through it all. I owe my family's future to you. You have touched so many lives and I will NEVER forget you. Thank you for changing my life. Love and miss you!
