

Leona Davis

LEONA DAVIS was born in Logan, West Virginia on December 10, 1940. She was one of twelve children born from the union of the late Tom Davis and the late Nettie Mae (Isaacs) Davis. Leona attended Wayne High School in West Virginia. She married Donald G. Bocook, and from this union would come the birth of two children. She served her family as a homemaker being a loving and supportive wife and mother. The young family moved to Michigan in 1970 and made their home in River Rouge, Mich. Leona was a devout Christian and she worshipped her Lord as a member of the River Rouge Freewill Baptist Church. In 2008, after the death of her son she moved to Carleton, Mich., to stay with her daughter. Leona was a woman of many varied interests and talents. She loved remodeling homes and didn't shy away from any projects. She was willing to rip out walls, put in beams, and even poured cement. Leona enjoyed sewing, often making her own clothes, quilting, and embroidery. More than anything, she cherished her family and especially her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. In her free time, she enjoyed sharing a game of dominoes or Yahtzee. Leona, age 73, of Carleton, Mich., passed away on Wednesday evening, September 17, 2014 at her home. In addition to her parents and her former spouse: Donald; her passing was preceded by a son: Donald Earl Bocook; and ten siblings: Allen, Roy, Jessie, Tom Jr., Ida, Perlina Steele, Glenna, Raymona, Fred Steele, Elouise. To cherish her memory she leaves a daughter: Tina (James) Crumb of Carleton; a sister: Polly V. (Cecil) Travis of West Virginia; four grandchildren: Raven Osborne, Kevin (Amanda) Osborne, Christopher Osborne (Emily Miller) and Julie Bocook (James Bergman); and six great-grandchildren: Makayla, Sean, Cura, Kevin Jr., Serenity, Kylie. Friends may gather from noon to 1 p.m. on Monday, September 22, 2014 at Rollins Funeral Home, Kenova. A Celebration of Her Life will follow at 1 p.m. and procession will follow to Skeens Cemetery for burial. Memorials are suggested to Tina to assist with funeral expenses.
