“ Jeff was one of my own, my son Tony and Jeff grew up together. They played football and baseball together. He was a great sportsman and person. I did lose track with him when I moved to Cincinnati, but when he was playing football at Marshall, I went to the Marshall game when they played Miami, and rooted for him all the way. He took time for me and my family and pictures. He will be sadly missed. I send my deepest sympathy to Bill, Danielle, Emma and Ella.
