“ (I am the great niece of Millard. My grandma is his sister Irene Maynard & I am the daughter of the late Autis Maynard.)

To all the family of Uncle Millard, I am so sorry for your your loss. I wish I knew exactly the right words to say to each of you. I, too, know what it's like to lose your Dad, brother, Uncle, Grandpa as I have lost all of these & there really are no words that can truly bring comfort at a time like this. I do know that he fought a valiant fight in his war against cancer, that he was a devoted & loving husband & father. My heart goes out to all of you. He is not really gone, he's the whisper you hear in the wind.

Rest in peaceful sleep, Uncle Millard.
