

Nancy Sue Staten

Nancy Sue Staten, 79, of Kenova, WV, died Tuesday, December 23, 2014 at the Villages of Silvercrest in New Albany, Indiana. Funeral services will be held at 11am Monday, December 29, 2014 at Rollins Funeral Home in Kenova, WV with the Reverend Scott Byard officiating. Burial will follow in Crescent Hill Cemetery in Ceredo, WV. Nancy was born on April 7, 1935 in Kenova, WV, daughter of the late Paul Hazlett and Mable Gibson Lester. She married "Tippy" Staten in 1952 and graduated from Ceredo-Kenova High School in 1953. She and "Tippy" raised 3 sons and never missed a C-K High School football, basketball, or baseball game in which they played. She loved Marshall University Thundering Herd football. For many years she served as the Secretary of the American Legion Post 93 in Kenova, WV. A humble woman who had kind words for everyone, she loved her family and was always helping and serving others. Nancy was preceded in death by her husband, Melvin Clifford "Tippy" Staten. She is survived in death by her brother and sister-in-law, Garry Lee and Marsha Lanham of Olmstead Falls, OH and her three sons and two daughter-in-laws: Dr. Clifford Lee and Shannon Staten of New Albany, IN; Tony Ervin Staten of Superior, WI; and Jack Keith and Sherry Staten of Superior, WI. She is survived by 11 grandchildren: Josh, Ryan, and Anna Staten; Glenn Kennedy; Shellie Kay Staten; Juan Staten; Hope and Alex Staten; Brittnee and Katie Urbaniak; and Marissa Running. She is also survived by 4 great-grandchildren: Kalaeb and Kylie Adkins; Milayah Kilbey; and Noah Urbaniak. She will be missed by many other extended family members and friends. Friends may call from 6 to 8pm on Sunday, December 28, 2014 at Rollins Funeral Home in Kenova, WV.
