“ My brother was known as "BIGGIN" by so many of his friends, co-workers and American Legion buddies and that was a good nick name for him But I knew him as Li'l Brother. i knew him as a softhearted teddy bear who tried to hide his soft side. In the past couple years we have communicated so much more because we knew the time would be shorter than we had all hoped. We talked about our families and our brother Bill's family. He told me many times how blessed he was to have all of them and that he thanked God so much that he was blessed with his grandsons and recognized from whom his blessings flowed. We talked of childhood memories. We had a lot of good memories. We always closed with an expression of love and his was "I Love My Sissy. Thank you Lord for my brother's life and the family he added to mine. May we all be able to remember the good times and not so much the things he had to suffer. He is much loved and missed. for his loving wife Janie and the kids and grandchildren, I love you so much and will be praying that your broken hearts will be soon replaced with hearts full of only the good memories and will be healed.
