“ Dear Robin and ALL who love this precious young man, Our hearts grieve for you and yours during this time of sorrow. We are no strangers to the horrible pain of grief...but THANKFUL to God, that I have never known this depth of pain until you lose a child, that would be the epitome of GRIEF! Our thoughts and prayers surround you and our hearts go out to ALL who are submersed in your tremendous sorrow...God SHALL be your Comforter, lean on HIM!!

“ Robin, I am so very sorry to hear of this. The pain you are having is horrible, I know. Just remember you are not alone. If you ever need to just talk and someone listen, I am here. I wish I were closer. I know we have lost touch over the past few years. I think of you often. If you get the chance and it may be a while, please private message me your address. My heart hurts for you. Know that you are loved dearly, my friend. Kathy
