“ I met and got to know Chase last June at a summer camp, where we were both counsellors. We hung out and played music together. The news of his passing made me very sad, and I pray for his family and friends. Chase was cool and kind hearted and I'm glad to have known him, even if for a short time. We'll jam together again in the next life, of that I'm sure. R.I.P. Chase!

“ I came to know Chase while he was working at FoodFair. I learned that he had graduated from Spring Valley with my daughter, and both were majoring in English at Marshall. From that time, I always attempted to talk with him when I was in the store. I found Chase to be an extremely nice and courteous young man. I am greatly saddened at his passing, and my prayers are with the family.
