

Vickie L. Carver

Vickie L. Carver, 66, of Kenova, W.Va. passed away Friday, December 29, 2017 at the Emogene Dolin Jones Hospice House. She was born July 3, 1951 in Kenova a daughter of the late Carl Franklin and Stella Beulah Smith Carver. She is survived by eight siblings Sharon Carver Hensley, Carl Marcum, David Lee Carver, Ruth Ann Marcum, Louise Marcum, Betty Jean Daniels, Lillian Wilson and Carol Sue Stotler and numerous nieces, nephews and friends. Visitation will be Friday, January 12, 2018 from 5-6 P.M. with a memorial service to follow at 6:00 P.M. at Rollins Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at rollinsfh.com.

Tribute Wall

KA

“ My dearest Aunt Vicki, you was a very special lady. You was the rock that held everyone together during hard times. You loved all children they was the tinkle in your eyes. Derek was as you called him your baby boy. He loved and still love you so very much. God wanted his precious angel back way too soon. Fly high my precious Aunt you will be very missed.

Karen - January 12, 2018 at 12:00 AM

BE

“ I love and miss you Aunt Vickie. You are our rock and will always be. I look back on the good times Aunt Vickie. You were such a sweet, kind person. You made us laugh and cleared up our tears. You are our guarding Angel now. Rest In Peace sweet Vickie, you deserve it.

Becky

Becky - January 05, 2018 at 12:00 AM

AL

“ My sincere condolence to the family and friends for the loss of your dear loved one
Please find comfort and peace of heart in God's promises at Revelation 21: 3,4. and Acts 24 : 15 which assures us of God's love in times of sorrow.

Alesa - January 05, 2018 at 12:00 AM

KA

“ My precious sister, I will never get over losing you..I miss you now and always will. You nor I did anything without shearing it with the other. Sis, I accidentally forgot to mention your son, your Derek, but I'm mentioning him now. Until we meet again, rest in peace, Sis...you deserve it!!

Kay - January 04, 2018 at 12:00 AM

RM

“ Love you sissy you will be sadly missed

Ruth marcum - January 02, 2018 at 12:00 AM

DE

“ Prayers for the family in this very hard time. I was a caregiver with her for many months and loved her so much! I will always remember her grace before eating and how she always ask God to make sure all the babies tummies were full each day. She was one of a kind and will be greatly missed. Fly high angel Vickie and RIP!

Debra - January 02, 2018 at 12:00 AM